Supplementary Fig. 2. Significant focal copy number aberrations by GISTIC analysis of 14 patients with advanced prostate cancer. The upper value of the plot is the G-score and the lower axis is the q-value. The G-score indicates the frequency of occurrence of CNV in the analyzed samples, and the q-value indicates the false discovery rate.